END NOTES

1. The case history is provided for your convenience. You should confirm the appellate history for, as well as any subsequent citations to, any opinion you reference.
2. The Procurement Review Panel numbers each of its opinions to reflect the year in which cases were filed and the order in which they were filed. For example, 1984-13 would represent the 13th case filed in 1984. In this list, the Panel's case number may include a suffix: "C" for a circuit court order; "CA" for an order of the Court of Appeals; "S" for a South Carolina Supreme Court order; "CPO" for the order of the Chief Procurement Officer; "DSC" for the District of South Carolina; and "4th Cir" for a Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals order.
3. Some cases have multiple opinions. For example, a case appealed from the Procurement Review Panel to the South Carolina Supreme Court might include opinions numbered 1984-13, 1984-13C, 1984-13CA, and 1984-13S. If any one court issues more than one opinion, the opinions will be numbered sequentially with Roman numerals. For example, two Procurement Review Panel opinions in the same case would appear as 1984-13 and 1984-13(II). Two circuit court opinions in the same case would appear as 1992-9C and 1992-9C(II).
