STATE PROJECT NO. M10-N070-MJ/EDA)

Charleston Naval Complex Redevelopment Authority was created for the purpose of redeveloping the property formerly occupied by the Charleston Naval Shipyard. The Authority contracted with International Public Works, LLC, to construct Access Control Points, Visitors Center and Building Renovations at the FLETC Charleston Complex. IPW, as principal, and Hanover Insurance, as surety, furnished a bond to secure IPW's performance of the contract.

As provided for in Code Section 11-35-4230, IPW requested the Chief Procurement Officer for Construction resolve controversies arising during performance of the contract. It seeks to recover the unpaid balance of the contract sum and asserts claims for extra work and for additional costs it alleges result, among other things, from the disruption to its schedule caused by events beyond its control. The Authority responded, denying anything was due to IPW and asserting counterclaims. The Authority also asked that the CPOC join Hanover as a party so the Authority could assert its claims under the bond. Although Hanover made no formal response to the Authority's claim, it is clear that it denies any liability.

The parties have entered into a settlement agreement. By a separate writing the CPOC has approved the settlement pursuant to Code Section 11-35-4230(3). The settlement resolves all issues asserted in IPW's Request and in the Authority's claims against IPW and Hanover.

Accordingly, this matter is dismissed.
