Protest Decision

Matter of: Rock Solid Earthworks, LLC

File No.: 2025-127

Posting Date: February 14, 2025

Contracting Entity: Lander University

Solicitation No.: IFB-SP-553-02-06-2025

Description: Hurricane Helene Tree and Stump Debris Removal and Disposal

DIGEST

The Chief Procurement Officer (CPO) denies the protest of Rock Solid Earthworks, LLC (Rock) challenging cancellation of a solicitation where all bids were nonresponsive. Rock's protest is attached as Exhibit A.¹

AUTHORITY

The Chief Procurement Officer (CPO) conducted an administrative review per S.C. Code Ann. §11-35-4210. This decision is based on materials in the procurement file and applicable law and precedents.

BACKGROUND

On January 1, 2025, Lander University (Lander) issued this solicitation requesting bids to remove and dispose of tree and stump debris resulting from Hurricane Helene. [Exhibit B] This solicitation used the competitive sealed bidding source selection method per Section 11-35-1520. Respecting the sealing of bids, the solicitation stated:

Your offer must be submitted in a sealed package.

Offers must be submitted in a sealed package.

SUBMITTING A PAPER OFFER OR MODIFICATION (MODIFIED): Paper offers are required. You must submit a paper offer or modification and the following instructions apply. (a) All prices and notations should be printed in ink or typewritten. Errors should be crossed out, corrections entered and initialed by the person signing the bid. Do not modify the solicitation document itself (including bid schedule). (b) (1) All copies of the offer or modification, and any other documents required to be submitted with the offer shall be enclosed in a sealed, opaque envelope or package. (2) Submit your offer or modification to the address on the Cover Page. (3) The envelope or package must show the time and date specified for opening, the solicitation number, and the name and address of the bidder.

If the offer or modification is sent by mail or special delivery service (UPS, Federal Express, etc.), the outermost envelope or wrapper must be labeled "OFFER ENCLOSED" on the face thereof. (c) If you are responding to more than one solicitation, submit each offer in a separate envelope or package. (d) Submit the number of copies indicated on the Cover Page. (e) Facsimile or e-mail offers, modifications, or withdrawals, will not be considered unless authorized by the Solicitation.

[Exhibit B, p. 9] [emphasis supplied]

The solicitation also stated:

BID BOND (JAN 2006): Your offer must include either a bid bond issued by a surety or sureties licensed in South Carolina or a certified check. The amount of surety shall be five per cent (5%) of the total bid amount. This bid bond penalty may be expressed in terms of a percentage of the bid price or may be expressed in dollars and cents. If a certified check is submitted in lieu of a bid bond, it must be made payable to the Using Governmental Unit. [02-2B010-1]

[Exhibit B, p. 9] [emphasis supplied]

By the deadline for receipt of bids, Lander received four bids. [Exhibit C] Rock attended the bid opening, and at least two of the bids were not in an envelope or package sealed to Rock's satisfaction. None of the bids included the required bid security.² On February 10, 2025, Lander notified the bidders that it was cancelling the solicitation because all bidders were non-responsive. On February 12, 2025, Rock emailed its protest to the CPO.

DISCUSSION

Rock's first series of protest issues concern the validity of all bids other than its own. Rock challenges whether these bids were properly sealed or whether the pricing in these bids included everything necessary to do the work of the solicitation. Because these bids were rejected as nonresponsive, Rock's protest about the validity of these bids is moot.

Rock next requests a "Specific Justification for the Non-Responsiveness Determination." While a request for a justification fails to state a claim on which relief can be granted, the entirety of Rock's protest makes it clear that Rock is arguing that it was responsive, and its bid should not have been thrown out. Rock states:

On February 6, 2025, Rock Solid Earthworks submitted a sealed and complete bid, following all instructions outlined in the solicitation. At the public bid opening, there was no mention of any missing documentation or deficiencies in our submission by the procurement office or other bidders. Furthermore, it was noted during the public procurement meeting that bids would not be thrown out for minor missing documentation, while the issue of unsealed submissions was clearly understood as disqualifiable.

In addition to meeting all requested requirements, Rock Solid Earthworks went above and beyond by including the following supplemental materials ...

[emphasis in the original]

Rock goes on to list the documents it included with its bid. This list does not include a bid bond.

South Carolina Regulation 19-445.2070F states:

When a bid security is required and a bidder fails to furnish it in accordance with the requirements of the invitation for bids, the bid shall be rejected.

² One bidder tried to provide the required security, but it was in the wrong form and amount. Because each bid includes taxpayer information or other personal information, the CPO has not included them as attachments to this protest.

Therefore, Lander was required by Regulation to reject any bid that did not include the required bid security. See Calculus, Inc., B-228393 (Comp, Gen. Oct. 21, 1987) (“When required by the solicitation, a bid bond is a material part of the bid and must be furnished with it. A bid which is nonresponsive due to the lack of an adequate bond cannot be made responsive by the furnishing of the bond after bid opening.”)

Rock complains that Lander did not mention that any required documents were missing from its bid or any other bid during bid opening. Regulation 19-445.2050 states:

The procurement officer of the governmental body or his designee shall decide when the time set for bid opening has arrived, and shall so declare to those present. In the presence of one or more state witnesses, he shall then personally and publicly open all bids received prior to that time, and read aloud so much thereof as is practicable, including prices, to those persons present and have the bids recorded.

[emphasis supplied]

Thus, the better practice is to announce whether bid security is enclosed with a bid when it is required.³ However, failure to do so does not make a nonresponsive bid responsive. The Procurement Code and Regulations require rejection of a nonresponsive bid, and the Procurement Officer may not waive this requirement by action or inaction. See Section 11-35-1520(10) and Reg. 19-445.2070.

Rock next suggests that based on the timing of Lander’s cancellation, Lander determined it to be nonresponsive because of earlier protests it submitted to Lander regarding the other bidders’ bids. However, as noted above, Rock was in fact nonresponsive, and the timing of Lander’s determination does not change this fact or the fact that South Carolina Regulations required Lander to reject Rock’s bid as well as every other bid as nonresponsive. Lander’s adherence to the requirements of the Procurement Code and Regulations does not create a ground of protest.⁴

³ At the same time, the Procurement Officer need not opine as to the validity or adequacy of the enclosed bid security at bid opening.

⁴ Rock complains about the fairness of a rebid after all bids have been publicly revealed. However, Lander was not responsible for the fact that all bidders failed to submit responsive bids. Any resulting unfairness results from the actions or inactions of the bidders, not Lander.

Subject: Formal Protest of Bid Process Due to Non-Compliance with Sealed Bid Requirements and Concerns Regarding Bid Discrepancy and Scope Compliance

Dear Mr. Pilgrim,

I am formally submitting this protest regarding the sealed bid process for Solicitation IFB-SP-553-02-06-2025, as I have identified non-compliance with bid submission requirements that may have impacted the fairness and integrity of the process.

Non-Compliance with Sealed Bid Requirements

It has come to my attention that at least two bids submitted for this project were not properly sealed as required by the solicitation documents, yet they were acknowledged and considered after the public bid reading. The bid instructions clearly specified that all submissions must be sealed upon delivery to ensure confidentiality and fairness. My company adhered to these requirements, ensuring that our bid was properly enclosed and sealed before submission. However, other bidders were permitted to participate despite failing to meet these same requirements.

A sealed bid must:

- Be enclosed in an envelope or package that is securely closed.
- Show no evidence of being opened, altered, or accessed before the official bid opening.
- Follow submission requirements outlined in the solicitation, as defined by the procurement officer.

If a bid was not properly sealed (e.g., submitted in an unsealed envelope or left open in any way), it should be considered non-compliant and disqualified. Allowing improperly sealed bids to be considered creates an unequal competitive environment and compromises the integrity of the procurement process.

Requested Actions on Bid Submission Compliance

In light of these concerns, I respectfully request:

Rock Solid Earthworks, LLC, Anderson, SC 29625
Contact: Gregory Hair 864-320-1062

1. A formal review of bid submissions, specifically addressing the acceptance and reading of improperly sealed bids.
2. Clarification on how the procurement office verified compliance with submission requirements, particularly regarding sealed bids and duplicate copies during and after the bid opening.
3. Corrective action to ensure that only compliant sealed bids are considered, which include disqualifying non-sealed submissions.

Significant Price Discrepancy and Scope Compliance Concerns

Additionally, I would like to bring attention to a substantial price discrepancy in the submitted bids. The lowest bid is approximately $60,000 lower than the next lowest bid that was read, which is a considerable gap that warrants further scrutiny. Given that all bidders were provided with the same scope of work and expectations, such a large variance raises concerns regarding whether the lowest bid fully accounts for all required work, materials, and compliance measures.

This concern was even acknowledged by Lander University employees at the public reading. To ensure a fair and competitive process, I respectfully request that the procurement office:

1. Thoroughly review the lowest bid to confirm that it meets all project specifications and requirements outlined in the solicitation.
2. Verify that no key scope elements were omitted or underrepresented, which could lead to unexpected cost overruns after the contract is awarded.
3. Ensure that the evaluation process remains transparent, preventing non-compliant bids from being unfairly considered over fully compliant proposals.

For example, just the estimated disposal fee at a local landfill would be approximately $30 per ton. At an estimated 900 tons of debris, that alone amounts to $27,000, excluding labor, materials, hauling, fuel, and other costs—raising questions about how the lowest bidder arrived at their pricing.

Conclusion

I appreciate the time and effort the procurement office dedicates to maintaining a fair and competitive bidding process. My intent in submitting this protest is to ensure that all bidders are held to the same standards and that the process remains transparent and equitable for all parties involved.

Please confirm receipt of this protest and provide guidance on the next steps. I look forward to your response and any clarification you can provide regarding these concerns.

Sincerely,

Gregory Hair

Subject: Formal Protest Regarding Bid Responsiveness Determination for Solicitation IFB-SP-553-02-06-2025

Dear Mr. Pilgrim,

I am submitting this formal protest regarding Lander University's determination that all bids submitted for Solicitation IFB-SP-553-02-06-2025 were deemed non-responsive due to missing necessary requirements. Rock Solid Earthworks is formally requesting clarification and justification as to why our bid was deemed non-responsive, as well as an explanation of the timeline in which this decision was made.

Request for Specific Justification of Non-Responsive Determination

On February 6, 2025, Rock Solid Earthworks submitted a sealed and complete bid, following all instructions outlined in the solicitation. At the public bid opening, there was no mention of any missing documentation or deficiencies in our submission by the procurement office or other bidders. Furthermore, it was noted during the public procurement meeting that bids would not be thrown out for minor missing documentation, while the issue of unsealed submissions was clearly understood as disqualifiable.

In addition to meeting all requested requirements, Rock Solid Earthworks went above and beyond by including the following supplemental materials:

- Certificate of Insurance
- Introduction letter to our business
- Business license from the State of South Carolina

Given that Rock Solid Earthworks complied with the sealed bid requirement and no immediate concerns were raised at the public reading, I respectfully request the following:

Rock Solid Earthworks, LLC, Anderson, SC 29625
Contact: Gregory Hair 864-320-1062

1. A detailed explanation of what specific information or documentation was missing from Rock Solid Earthworks' bid that led to it being deemed non-responsive.
2. Clarification on when this determination was made and whether it was influenced by Rock Solid Earthworks' previously submitted protest regarding unsealed bids.
3. An explanation of why no deficiencies in our bid were raised during the public bid opening, despite the clear opportunity to do so.
4. Was our bid protested by other participants or our bid further looked into after the protest and realizing the unsealed bids needed to be disqualified?

Concerns Regarding Fairness and Potential Advantage in Rebid Process

At this point, the decision to deem all bids non-responsive raises concerns about whether the procurement office is allowing unsealed bidders another opportunity to submit corrected bids, which could be perceived as an unfair advantage. If bidders who initially failed to comply with the sealed bid requirement are now being given another opportunity to submit, this contradicts the integrity of the original procurement process and further provides an additional chance at an unfair advantage.

To maintain a fair and competitive process, I request confirmation that:

- No bidder is receiving preferential treatment or an opportunity to modify their bid submission based on information gained from the previous bid opening.
- How can the procurement office ensure that the original unsealed bidders are not being given preferential treatment due to being previously protested on similar solicitation.
- The procurement office is applying the same standards equitably to all bidders, ensuring transparency in the process.

Conclusion

Rock Solid Earthworks remains committed to participating in a fair and transparent procurement process. However, we strongly believe that failing to provide justification for deeming our bid non-responsive—after no concerns were raised publicly—raises serious questions about the handling of this solicitation.

I respectfully request a written response clarifying these concerns and detailing the specific deficiencies that led to the rejection of our bid. Please confirm receipt of this protest and provide guidance on the next steps.

Thank you for your time and consideration. I look forward to your prompt response.

Sincerely,

Gregory Hair

Subject: Request for Immediate Reconsideration – Solicitation IFB-SP-553-02-06-2025 based on response post our formal request this morning 2/11/24.

Dear Mr. Pilgrim,

Thank you for your response. However, I would like to formally request immediate reconsideration of Rock Solid Earthworks' bid, as the reason cited for deeming our submission non-responsive is inconsistent with the stated terms of the solicitation.

Per Section “PERFORMANCE BOND REQUIRED” on page 10 of the IFB-SP-553-02-06-2025 solicitation document, bidders are explicitly granted “10 days post-award” to submit the required bid bond, check, or other bid security. As such, Rock Solid Earthworks' bid was fully compliant with the solicitation's terms at the time of submission.

Given this clear misinterpretation of the solicitation requirements,

I respectfully request that:

1. Rock Solid Earthworks' bid be immediately reconsidered as a responsive and qualified submission.
2. A written confirmation be provided stating that our bid will be evaluated fairly and in accordance with the solicitation's actual terms.
3. Any further determinations regarding responsiveness be based solely on the documented requirements, rather than ongoing attempts to exclude our bid from consideration.

At this stage, any further efforts to search for reasons to disqualify Rock Solid Earthworks—despite our full compliance—would indicate an unfair and arbitrary evaluation process, which would contradict the principles of an open and competitive procurement.

Please confirm receipt of this request and provide an update on the next steps. I appreciate your prompt attention to this matter and look forward to your response.

IF YOU REQUEST A PREFERENCE, YOU ARE CERTIFYING THAT YOUR OFFER QUALIFIES FOR THE PREFERENCE YOU'VE CLAIMED. IMPROPERLY REQUESTING A PREFERENCE CAN HAVE SERIOUS CONSEQUENCES. [11-35-1524(E)(4)&(6)]

Label any communication regarding your questions with the name of the procurement officer, and the solicitation's title and number. Oral explanations or instructions will not be binding. [See R. 19-445.2042(B)] Any information given a prospective offeror concerning a solicitation will be furnished promptly to all other prospective offerors as an Amendment to the solicitation, if that information is necessary for submitting offers or if the lack of it would be prejudicial to other prospective offerors. See clause entitled "Duty to Inquire." We will not identify you in our answer to your question. (b) The State seeks to permit maximum practicable competition. Offerors are urged to advise the Procurement Officer -- as soon as possible -- regarding any aspect of this procurement, including any aspect of the Solicitation that unnecessarily or inappropriately limits full and open competition. (b) Bid as Specified. Offers for supplies or services other than those specified will not be considered unless authorized by the Solicitation. [02-2A105- 3]

SIGNING YOUR OFFER (JAN 2004): Every Offer must be signed by an individual with actual authority to bind the Offeror. (a) If the Offeror is an individual, the Offer must be signed by that individual. CONFIDENTIAL DATA (FEB 2021) (a) According to Section 11-35-410, any person submitting a document in response or with regard to any solicitation or other request must "comply with instructions provided in the solicitation for marking information exempt from public disclosure. Information not marked as required by the applicable instructions may be disclosed to the public." IF YOU IDENTIFY YOUR ENTIRE RESPONSE AS EXEMPT FROM PUBLIC DISCLOSURE, OR IF YOU DO NOT SUBMIT A REDACTED COPY AS REQUIRED, THE STATE MAY, IN ITS SOLE DISCRETION, DETERMINE YOUR BID OR PROPOSAL NONRESPONSIVE AND INELIGIBLE FOR AWARD. (b) By submitting a response to this solicitation or request, Offeror agrees to the public disclosure of every page, or portion thereof, of every document regarding this solicitation or request that was submitted at any time prior to entering into a contract (including, but not limited to, documents contained in a response, documents submitted to clarify a response, and documents submitted during negotiations), unless the page, or portion thereof, was redacted and conspicuously marked "Trade Secret" or "Confidential" or "Protected," (2) agrees that any information not redacted and marked, as required by these bidding instructions, as a "Trade Secret" is not a trade secret as defined by the Trade Secrets Act, and (3) agrees that, notwithstanding any claims or markings otherwise, any prices, commissions, discounts, or other financial figures used to determine the award, as well as the final contract amount, are subject to public disclosure. (c) If your offer includes any information that you claim is exempt from public disclosure, you must submit one complete copy of your offer from which you have removed or concealed such information (the redacted copy). Except for the information removed or concealed, the redacted copy must be identical to your original offer. (d) Do not mark your entire response (bid, proposal, quote, etc.) as confidential, trade secret, or protected. If only portions of a page are subject to some protection, do not redact the entire page. The redacted copy must reflect the same pagination as the original and show the empty space from which information was redacted. The Procurement Officer must be able to view, search, copy and print the redacted copy without a password. If your response, or any part thereof, is improperly marked as confidential or trade secret or protected, the State may, in its sole discretion, determine it nonresponsive. (e) On the redacted copy, you must identify the basis of your claim by marking each redaction as follows: You must separately mark with the word "CONFIDENTIAL" every page, or portion thereof, that you redacted and claim as exempt from public disclosure because it is either (1) a trade secret as defined in Section 30-4-40(a)(1) of the Freedom of Information Act, or (2) privileged and confidential, as that phrase is used in Section 11-35-410. You must separately mark with the words "TRADE SECRET" every page, or portion thereof, that you redacted and claim as exempt from public disclosure as a trade secret pursuant to Section 39-8-20 of the Trade Secrets Act. You must separately mark with the word "PROTECTED" every page, or portion thereof, that you redacted and claim as exempt from public disclosure pursuant to Section 11-35- 1810. All markings must be conspicuous; use color, bold, underlining, or some other method in order to conspicuously distinguish the mark from the other text. (f) In determining whether to release documents, the State will detrimentally rely on your redaction and marking of documents, as required by these bidding instructions, as being either "Confidential" or "Trade Secret" or "Protected." By submitting a response, you agree to defend, indemnify and hold harmless the State of South Carolina, its agencies, officers and employees, from every claim, demand, loss, expense, cost, damage or injury, including attorney's fees, arising out of or resulting from withholding information by the State of South Carolina or any of its agencies, that you have redacted or marked as "Confidential" or "Trade Secret" or "Protected." (All references to S.C. Code of Laws.) [02-2A125-3]

SUBMITTING A PAPER OFFER OR MODIFICATION (MODIFIED): Paper offers are required. You must submit a paper offer or modification and the following instructions apply. (a) All prices and notations should be printed in ink or typewritten. Errors should be crossed out, corrections entered and initialed by the person signing the bid. Do not modify the solicitation document itself (including bid schedule). (b) (1) All copies of the offer or modification, and any other documents required to be submitted with the offer shall be enclosed in a sealed, opaque envelope or package. (2) Submit your offer or modification to the address on the Cover Page. (3) The envelope or package must show the time and date specified for opening, the solicitation number, and the name and address of the bidder.

If the offer or modification is sent by mail or special delivery service (UPS, Federal Express, etc.), the outermost envelope or wrapper must be labeled "OFFER ENCLOSED" on the face thereof. (c) If you are responding to more than one solicitation, submit each offer in a separate envelope or package. (d) Submit the number of copies indicated on the Cover Page. (e) Facsimile or e-mail offers, modifications, or withdrawals, will not be considered unless authorized by the Solicitation.

If any such change increases or decreases the contractor's cost of, or the time required for, performance of any part of the work under this contract, whether or not changed by the order, an adjustment shall be made in the contract price, the delivery schedule, or both, and the contract modified in writing accordingly. Any adjustment in contract price made pursuant to this clause shall be determined in accordance with the Price Adjustment Clause of this contract. Failure of the parties to agree to an adjustment shall not excuse the contractor from proceeding with the contract as changed, provided that the State promptly and duly make such provisional adjustments in payment or time for performance as may be reasonable. By proceeding with the work, the contractor shall not be deemed to have prejudiced any claim for additional compensation, or an extension of time for completion.(3) Time Period for Claim. Within 30 days after receipt of a written contract modification under Paragraph (1) of this clause, unless such period is extended by the Procurement Officer in writing, the contractor shall file notice of intent to assert a claim for an adjustment. Later notification shall not bar the contractor's claim unless the State is prejudiced by the delay in notification.(4) Claim Barred After Final Payment. No claim by the contractor for an adjustment hereunder shall be allowed if notice is not given prior to final payment under this contract.[07-7B025-1]

All certificates are to be received and approved by the State before work commences. However, failure to obtain the required documents prior to the work beginning shall not waive the Contractor's obligation to provide them. The State reserves the right to require complete, certified copies of all required insurance policies, including endorsements required by this section, at any time.

(f) Should any of the above described policies be cancelled before the expiration date thereof, notice will be delivered in accordance with the policy provisions. However, the Contractor shall continue the work not terminated.(c) Except for defaults of subcontractors at any tier, the Contractor shall not be liable for any excess costs if the failure to perform the contract arises from causes beyond the control and without the fault or negligence of the Contractor. (e) If this contract is terminated for default, the State may require the Contractor to transfer title and deliver to the State, as directed by the Procurement Officer, any (1) completed supplies, and (2) partially completed supplies and materials, parts, tools, dies, jigs, fixtures, plans, drawings, information, and contract rights (collectively referred to as "manufacturing materials" in this clause) that the Contractor has specifically produced or acquired for the terminated portion of this contract. Upon direction of the Procurement Officer, the Contractor shall also protect and preserve property in its possession in which the State has an interest.(f) The State shall pay contract price for completed supplies delivered and accepted. The Contractor and Procurement Officer shall agree on the amount of payment for manufacturing materials delivered and accepted and for the protection and preservation of the property; if the parties fail to agree, the Procurement Officer shall set an amount subject to the Contractor's rights under the Disputes clause. Failure to agree will be a dispute under the Disputes clause. The State may withhold from these amounts any sum the Procurement Officer determines to be necessary to protect the State against loss because of outstanding liens or claims of former lien holders.(g) If, after termination, it is determined that the Contractor was not in default, or that the default was excusable, the rights and obligations of the parties shall, if the contract contains a clause providing for termination for convenience of the State, be the same as if the termination had been issued for the convenience of the State. If, in the foregoing circumstances, this contract does not contain a clause providing for termination for convenience of the State, the contract shall be adjusted to compensate for such termination and the contract modified accordingly subject to the contractor's rights under the Disputes clause.(h) The rights and remedies of the State in this clause are in addition to any other rights and remedies provided by law or under this contract. The rights and remedies of Lander University provided for under this contract are in addition to any other rights and remedies provided by law.

Contractor shall be given timely written notice of any suit or claim. Contractor's obligations hereunder are in no way limited by any protection afforded under workers' compensation acts, disability benefits acts, or other employee benefit acts. This clause shall not negate, abridge, or reduce any other rights or obligations of indemnity which would otherwise exist. The obligations of this paragraph shall survive termination, cancelation, or expiration of the parties' agreement. This provision shall be construed fairly and reasonably, neither strongly for nor against either party, and without regard to any clause regarding insurance. As used in this clause, "Indemnitees" means the State of South Carolina, its instrumentalities, agencies, departments, boards, political subdivisions and all their respective officers, agents and employees. Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on Line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. person (including a U.S. resident alien).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the Certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. (See the instructions on page 4.)

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS, must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

U.S. person. Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding,
- or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

For federal tax purposes you are considered a person if you are:

- An individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States, or • Any estate (other than a foreign estate) or trust. See Regulations sections 301.7701-6(a) and 7(a) for additional information.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the recipient has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.

NONRESIDENT TAXPAYER REGISTRATION AFFIDAVIT INCOME TAX WITHHOLDING

IMPORTANT TAX NOTICE - NONRESIDENTS ONLY

Withholding Requirements for Payments to Nonresidents: Section 12-8-550 of the South Carolina Code of Laws requires persons hiring or contracting with a nonresident conducting a business or performing personal services of a temporary nature within South Carolina to withhold 2% of each payment made to the nonresident. The withholding requirement does not apply to (1) payments on purchase orders for tangible personal property when the payments are not accompanied by services to be performed in South Carolina, (2) nonresidents who are not conducting business in South Carolina, (3) nonresidents for contracts that do not exceed $10,000 in a calendar year, or (4) payments to a nonresident who (a) registers with either the S.C. Department of Revenue or the S.C. Secretary of State and (b) submits a Nonresident Taxpayer Registration Affidavit - Income Tax Withholding, Form I-312 to the person letting the contract.

The withholding requirement applies to every governmental entity that uses a contract ("Using Entity"). Nonresidents should submit a separate copy of the Nonresident Taxpayer Registration Affidavit - Income Tax Withholding, Form I-312 to every Using Entity that makes payment to the nonresident pursuant to this solicitation. Once submitted, an affidavit is valid for all contracts between the nonresident and the Using Entity, unless the Using Entity receives notice from the Department of Revenue that the exemption from withholding has been revoked.

Section 12-8-540 requires persons making payment to a nonresident taxpayer of rentals or royalties at a rate of $1,200.00 or more a year for the use of or for the privilege of using property in South Carolina to withhold 7% of the total of each payment made to a nonresident taxpayer who is not a corporation and 5% if the payment is made to a corporation. Contact the Department of Revenue for any applicable exceptions.

For information about other withholding requirements (e.g., employee withholding), contact the Withholding Section at the South Carolina Department of Revenue at 803-898-5383 or visit the Department's website at: www.sctax.org
