

CLAUSES FOR USE IN CONSTRUCTION MANAGEMENT AT-RISK RFQ

1. Disclosure of Conflicts of Interest or Unfair Competitive Advantage : You warrant and represent that your offer identifies and explains any unfair competitive advantage you may have in competing for the proposed contract and any actual or potential conflicts of interest that may arise from your participation in this competition or your receipt of an award. Without limitation, an unfair competitive advantage exists where a contractor competing for award possesses either proprietary information that was obtained from a government official without proper authorization or source selection information (as defined in Regulation 19-445.2010(C)) that is relevant to the contract but is not available to all competitors, and such information would assist that contractor in obtaining the contract. If you have an unfair competitive advantage or a conflict of interest, the state may withhold award. Before withholding award on these grounds, an Offeror will be notified of the concerns and provided a reasonable opportunity to respond. Efforts to avoid or mitigate such concerns, including restrictions on future activities, may be considered.

 - (c) The methods or factors used to calculate the prices offered.
 - 2) The prices in this offer have not been and will not be knowingly disclosed by the Offeror, directly or indirectly, to any other Offeror or competitor before bid opening (in the case of a sealed bid solicitation) or contract award (in the case of a negotiated solicitation) unless otherwise required by law; and
 - 3) No attempt has been made or will be made by the Offeror to induce any other concern to submit or not to submit an offer for the purpose of restricting competition.
 - b. Each signature on the offer is considered to be a certification by the signatory that the signatory—
 - 1) Is the person in the Offeror's organization responsible for determining the prices being offered in this offer, and that the signatory has not participated and will not participate in any action contrary to paragraphs 2.a(1) through 2.a(3) of this certification; or
 - 2) (a) Has been authorized, in writing, to act as agent for the Offeror's principals in certifying that those principals have not participated, and will not participate in any action contrary to paragraphs 2.a(1) through 2.a(3) of this certification [As used in this subdivision 2.b(2)(a), the term "principals" means the person(s) in the Offeror's organization responsible for determining the prices offered in this bid];
 - (b) As an authorized agent, does certify that the principals referenced in subdivision 2.b(2)(a) of this certification have not participated, and will not participate, in any action contrary to paragraphs 2.a(1) through 2.a(3) of this certification; and

The knowledge and information of an Offeror is not required to exceed that which is normally possessed by a prudent person in the ordinary course of business dealings.
 - f. The certification in paragraph 3.a of this provision is a material representation of fact upon which reliance was placed when making award. If it is later determined that the Offeror knowingly or in bad faith rendered an erroneous certification, in addition to other remedies available to the State, the Procurement Officer may terminate the contract resulting from this solicitation for default.
4. ETHICS CERTIFICATE: By submitting a offer, the Offeror certifies that the Offeror has and will comply with, and has not, and will not, induce a person to violate Title 8, Chapter 13 of the South Carolina Code of Laws, as amended (ethics act).
